"I love to travel the streets of New York and try out every new establishment that opens up. L'âme du Café has been one of the highlights so far. The coffee was excellent. Good on you guys!"	"I'm not much of a coffee drinker, but when some friends suggested we meet here, I was totally blown away by the quality of their brews. I even got some beans to try out their recipes at home."	"I like to enjoy coffee while working from home to keep me energized. I tried a few different brands, but none are as tasty and energizing as the ones from L'âme du Café. I'm thinking of buying a machine too."	"I'm an avid coffee enjoyer, so I know what makes a good cup. It seems the guys at L'âme du Café know it, too. I was pleasantly surprised by the taste. They use real, authentic ingredients, which is why I'm a regular now."
