About Us

Fat Man and the Redhead started with a dream. Scott "The Fat Man" and Gretchen "The Redhead" have been making spiced snacks and confectionary items and raising the bar. Each product is made using secret techniques and special spices to develop a flavor, unlike anything you've ever tasted before. We're passionate about what we do and continue to innovate to develop new flavors. So far, we have achieved significant success, and we thank you for that.

Fat Man and the Redhead brings authentic Arizonian taste and texture to spiced snacks to help make each trip better than the last. Whether you're prepping for a trip to the Grant Canyon or taking the Ten going anywhere, keep munching on our yummy snacks!

Frequently Asked Questions

What makes your snacks so special?

Our products are special because we source our products from reliable suppliers who provide us with high-quality ingredients. We then make the snacks ourselves, such as caramel corn, candies, cookies and so much else, using our special spice that changes flavor depending on how you cook it. Some are on the smoked side, while others are sweeter with a kick.

Are your snacks gluten-free?

Yes, we take special care to make sure our products are gluten-free. We strive to meet the standards of gluten-free products and make them suitable for consumption by people who have specific sensitivities or allergies.

Do you offer vegan options for your products?

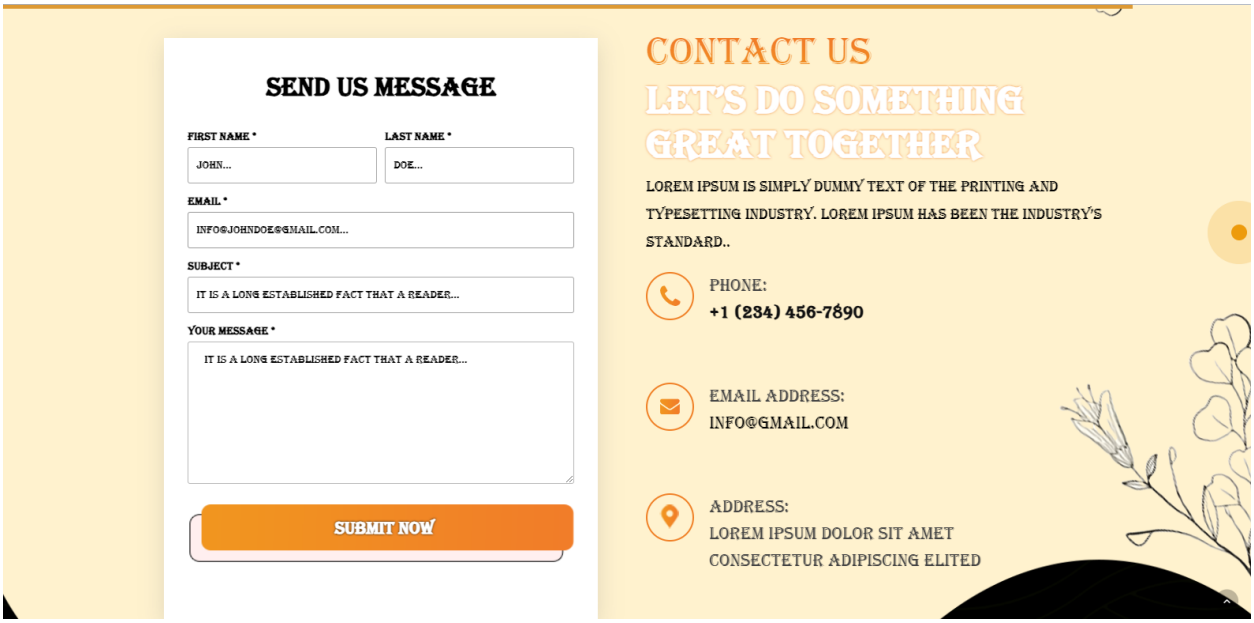

Yes! We have a range of vegan options that don't contain any ingredients derived from animals. You can browse for your favorite vegan snacks on our website.

How do I store my spiced snacks to keep them fresh for longer?

To keep your spiced snacks fresh for longer, keep it in a cool, dry place inside an airtight container. Avoid exposure to direct sunlight and extreme temperatures.

What is the shelf life of your products?

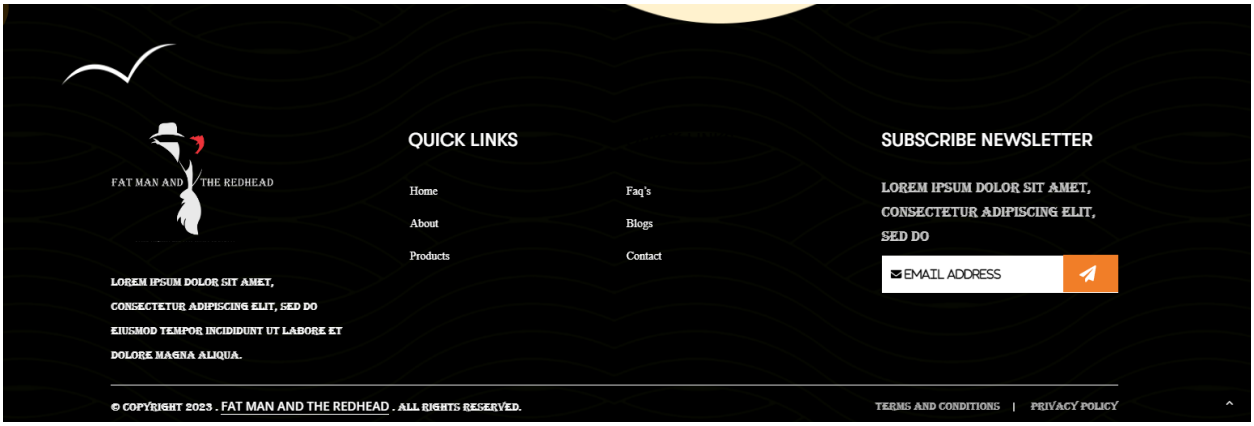

Fat Man and the Redhead products have a shelf life of around 6-12 months. You can observe the "use by" label printed on each package before buying to ensure freshness.
